SECTION | - CLAIM DETERMINATION

Not eligible as of 04/24/11.

SECTION II - LEGAL BASIS FOR DETERMINATION

Section 34-8-47 of the Employment Security law explains the term "unemployment." are unemployed during a week if you do not perform any work. If you work less than full time during a week, you can also be considered "unemployed." Your earnings over $50.00 are subtracted from your weekly benefit amount. If any of your weekly benefit amount remains, you are considered unemployed. If you work on commission only, you are considered employed full time regardless of hours.

SECTION III - REASONING

Your employer hired you to work part-time. Your entire claim is based on wages from this employer. You are still working part-time as agreed. Therefore, you are not unemployed. Since you are not unemployed, you cannot draw unemployment benefits. If you separate from your job

later, you may reapply for benefits. NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

SECTION N - APPEAL RIGHTS NOTE: This determination will become final unless you file an appeal on or before 06/03/11. If you file an appeal you must continue to report on your claim as instructed, or you will not be paid if you win your appeal. Refer to the Claimant Handbook booklet or contact an office of the Georgia Department of Labor for more details.

Publix.

Dear Associate,

Maintaining food safety isn't only good for our personal health, our customers expect it from us. And, it isn't just one department's or one person's responsibility. It takes each of us being knowledgeable and aware of food safety procedures to maintain safe, high-quality food for ourselves and our customers.

As we enter National Food Safety Education Month, it's an important reminder to follow food safety rules and regulations and apply them at work and practice them at home. Keep in mind safe food handling isn't just important in September; we should maintain a safe food handling environment every day.

Did you know our cut fruit comes from whole melons that are chilled overnight to lower temperatures? And once the fruit is cut, it's chilled again. Even before being sent to Publix, the fruit is washed after harvest so we receive clean, high-quality produce. These are important factors in maintaining food safety in products such as the Publix Fruit Salad I'm giving you with this month's coupon.

These are just a couple things Publix does to keep food safe in our produce departments. It's up to you to practice food safety procedures at work and at home. When you know you've handled food safely, you can be confident about what you're eating, and our customers will be too.

Thanks for all you do.

29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq. ("ADEA"), because he was harassed, suspended, and the recipient of poor evaluations. The Court first resolves Plaintiff's IFP application before examining Plaintiff's complaint.

In Forma Pauperis Application

Plaintiff''s application to proceed in forma pauperis asserts that Plaintiff is currently employed and is earning approximately $800 per month. Plaintiff's spouse is unemployed, and Plaintiff indicates that she is a housewife. The couple has multiple checking accounts with a total balance of $29.50. Plaintiff and his wife do not own any major assets such as a home or a car, but they have life insurance policies. They have $710 in monthly expenses as follows: $600 for rent; $10 for utilities; and $100 for food.

Plaintiff adds that he has been seeking full time work (presumably with Publix), but he has been denied a transfer or promotion for the past five years.

The Court "may authorize the commencement . . . of any suit, action, or proceeding . . . without payment of fees and costs or security therefor, by a person who submits an affidavit that includes a statement of all assets such prisoner[2] possesses that the person is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor." 28 U.S.C.

AO 72A (Rev.8/8

Although Congress used the word "prisoner" here, Section 1915 applies to non-prisoner indigent litigants as well as prisoners. Martinez v. Kristi Kleaners, Inc., 364 F.3d 1305, 1306 n.1 (11th Cir. 2004).

It is not clear, however, about what specific actions he complains.<sup>4</sup> As a result, Plaintiff SHALL clearly identify in his amended complaint the employment decisions that he is complaining about and the dates that these decisions were made.

Plaintiff states that he suffered age discrimination, but he does not explain why he believes that these employment decisions were made because of his age.<sup>5</sup> As a result, Plaintiff SHALL explain why he believes each employment decision was made because di his age.

B'. Retaliation

Plaintiff also appears to bring retaliation claims based on his filing of the

August 11, 2011, EEOC charge.6 (See Complaint in Doc. 1-1 at 18). It is unclear, Plaintiff's EEOC charge identifies only two employment decisions: (1) an April 26, 2011, written counseling; and (2) an August 10, 2011, three-day suspension. This pot clear, however, if Plaintiff's civil action seeks to raise additional employment discrimination claims based on other employment decisions. As a result, the Court seeks clarification from Plaintiff.

His EEOC charge, which is attached to the complaint, generally states that he was "subjected to different terms and conditions of employment than [his] younger co-workers," and that he "believe[s] that [he has] been discriminated against because of [his] age."

Plaintiff's EEOC charge did not raise retaliation claims. Ordinarily, a plaintiff must exhaust his administrative remedies before bringing ADEA retaliation claims. See Bost v. Federal Express Corp., 372 F.3d 1233, 1238 (11th Cir. 2004); Dowlatpanah v. Wellstar Douglas Hosp., No. 1:05-cv-2752-WSD-RGV, 2006 WL

INFORMATION RELATED TO FILING SUIT UNDER THE LAWS ENFORCED BY THE EEOC

Wer Guy

(This information relates to filing suit in Federal or State court under Federal law.

If you also plan to sue claiming violations of State law, please be aware that time limits and other provisions of State law may be shorter or more limited than those described below.)

7/28/11

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA):

In order to pursue this matter further, you must file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) named in the charge within 90 days of the date you receive this Notice. Therefore, you should keep a record of this date. Once this 90-day period is over, your right to sue based on the charge referred to in this Notice will be lost. If you intend to consult an attorney, you should do so promptly. Give your attorney a copy of this Notice, and its envelope, and tell him or her the date you received it. Furthermore, in order to avoid any question that you did not act in a timely manner, it is prudent that your suit be filed within 90 days of the date this Notice was mailed to you (as indicated where the Notice is signed) or the date of the postmark, if later.

Your lawsuit may be filed in U.S. District Court or a State court of competent jurisdiction. (Usually, the appropriate State court is the general civil trial court.) Whether you file in Federal or State court is a matter for you to decide after talking to your attorney. Filing this Notice is not enough. You must file a "complaint" that contains a short statement of the facts of your case which shows that you are entitled to relief. Your suit may include any matter alleged in the charge or, to the extent permitted by court decisions, matters like or related to the matters alleged in the charge. Generally, suits are brought in the State where the alleged unlawful practice occurred, but in some cases can be brought where relevant employment records are kept, where the employment would have been, or where the respondent has its main office. If you have simple questions, you usually can get answers from the office of the clerk of the court where you are bringing suit, but do not expect that office to write your complaint or make legal strategy decisions for you.

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Equal Pay Act (EPA):

EPA suits must be filed in court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment: back pay due for violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible. For example, if you were underpaid under the EPA for work performed from 7/1/08 to 12/1/08, you should file suit before 7/1/10 - not 12/1/10 -- in order to recover unpaid wages due for July 2008. This time limit for filing an EPA suit is separate from the 90-day filing period under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA referred to above. Therefore, if you also plan to sue under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA, in addition to suing on the EPA claim, suit must be filed within 90 days of this Notice and within the 2- or 3-year EPA back pay recovery period.

TORNEY REPRESENTATION -- Title VII, the ADA or GINA:

If you cannot afford or have been unable to obtain a lawyer to represent you, the U.S. District Court having jurisdiction in your case may, in limited circumstances, assist you in obtaining a lawyer. Requests for such assistance must be made to the U.S. District Court in the form and manner it requires (you should be prepared to explain in detail your efforts to retain an attorney). Requests should be made well before the end of the 90-day period mentioned above, because such requests do not relieve you of the requirement to bring suit within 90-days.

ATTORNEY REFERRAL AND EEOC ASSISTANCE All Statutes

You may contact the EEOC representative shown on your Notice if you need help in finding a lawyer or if you have any questions about your legal rights, including advice on which U.S. District Court can hear your case. If you need to inspect or obtain a copy of information in EEOC's file on the charge, please request it promptly in writing and provide your charge number (as shown on your Notice). While EEOC destroys charge files after a certain time, all charge files are kept for at least 6 months after our last action on the case. Therefore, if you file suit and want to review the charge file, please make your review request within 6 months of this Notice. (Before filing suit, any request should be made within the next 90 days.)

however, what employment decisions Plaintiff believes were made in retaliation for the EEOC charge. As a result, Plaintiff SHALL (1) identify the specific employment decisions that he believes were made in retaliation for filing the August 2011, EEOC charge, (2) identify the dates that these employment decisions were made, (3) identify the individual who made the employment decisions, and (4) explain why this decisionmaker knew about Plaintiff's EEOC charge of discrimination.

C. General Matters

Besides these pleading deficiencies, Plaintiff's complaint complains other problems that must be remedied. First, his complaint provides documents listing his Social Security number. Plaintiff SHALL erase his Social Security number from any document that he files with his amended complaint.

Second, Plaintiff's complaint is difficult to read. If possible, Plaintiff should type his complaint instead of handwriting it. If Plaintiff does not have access to a computer, he SHALL clearly handwrite the allegations in his complaint. This 4093123, *11 n.12 (N.D. Ga. Dec. 5, 2006), adopted by 2007 WL 639875 (N.D. Ga. Feb 26, 2007). However, a party need not file another EEOC charge where he alleges retaliation as a result of the filing of an EEOC charge. See Baker v. Buckeye Cellulose Corp., 856 F.2d 167, 168-69 (11th Cir. 1988) (citing Gupta v. E. Texas State Univ., 654 F.2d 411 (5th Cir. Unit A Aug. 1981)). But see Bennett v. Chatham County Sheriff Dep't, 315 Fed. Appx. 152, 162 n.7 (11th Cir. Nov. 4, 2008) (indicating that National Railroad Passenger Corp. v. Morgan, 536 U.S. 101 (2002) may have altered this rule).

the facts as pleaded fail to state a claim for relief that is 'plausible on its face.' "

Leonard v. F.B.I., No. 10-12896, 2010 WL 5071835, *1 (11th Cir. Dec. 14, 2010)

(quoting Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. ----, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1949 (2009)). This means that "[t]he 'plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds' of his 'entitlement to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do.' " Id. (quoting Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007)).

The Court concludes that it needs additional information before it can conduct the frivolity review. It appears that Plaintiff seeks to bring two causes of action: (1) a cause of action for age discrimination; and (2) a cause of action for retaliation. Plaintiff's complaint, as currently pleaded, is unclear, so the Court DIRECTS Plaintiff to file an amended complaint on or before Wednesday, September 14, 2011, that complies with the directions below.

A. Age Discrimination

Plaintiff appears to complain that he experienced age discrimination based on the following circumstances: (1) harassment; (2) suspensions; and (3) poor evaluations.
